Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Sofie Stromme (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In Mr. Pompety Pompton the 6 Magic Piggy Banks your child will learn alongside our beloved Mr. Pompety Pompton, how to manage the money that they earn so that their money will work hard for them rather than your child always having to work hard for their money. This is a very important skill that most people will never acquire. By learning how to manage their money well, your child will learn about the system of money management that gives your child control over their life. They will learn how to pay themselves first with the Grow jar, then they will learn the importance of letting money flow to help others so that they will also be open to being helped when they most need it with their Give jar. Your child will learn how to save for that horrible rainy day when their world turns completely up-side-down with their Rain jar. Don t you wish you d started one of those jars when you were a kid? We all have our rainy days , those days when we just can t see a way out financially and we are feeling financially stuck. Wouldn t it be great if you had a Rain jar to fall back on? Your child will learn the importance of being ready for their continued education and growth through their Learn jar. And of course your child will love the Goal and Fun jars the most while they learn to go after their goals and to also let themselves celebrate their own accomplishments by spoiling themselves every so often as well.
