THE BRISTOL ROVERS ARCHIVE: NO. 1: 1951-1991 (PAPERBACK)

Tangent Books, United Kingdom, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: N/A. Brand New Book. Introduction In season 1952/53 Bristol Rovers won their first ever Football League promotion, winning the Third Division (South) title. While this book is not a diamond anniversary tribute to that team it was the spur needed to produce this book, which brings together a collection of photos spanning forty years in the proud history of the club. The first images are from 1951 when Rovers reached the quarter final of the FA Cup, going out to the eventual winners of the competition, Newcastle United, after a replay that caught the imagination of the Bristol footballing public. The selected photos from the 1950s, widely regarded as a golden age for Bristol Rovers, feature many of the players and staff who, even today, retain a place in the history of this great club. Perhaps that s because they played alongside each other for so many years; the team of the 1950s virtually picked itself. The club s No Buy, No Sell policy also contributed to the camaraderie of that side and their closeness to the supporters and, hopefully, the small selection of photographs from that time illustrates that point. Appropriately the first image is of influential skipper Ray Warren, a player whose career began before the Second World War, pictured at a flooded Eastville. We then move on to take in a number of the players who represented this proud club during those halcyon days. Harry Bamford, Alfie Biggs Geoff Bradford, Geoff Fox, Bert Hoyle, Barrie Meyer, George Petherbridge, Jack Pitt, and Dai Ward, not forgetting manager Bert Tann, are among those featured from a time when football was a totally different game from the one we know today. As well as the floods at Eastville, we see camping...
