Get your copy of Sarah Barton s Hunting the Wren to discover this intriguing who dunnit. Mrs. Elizabeth Rowland is the young housekeeper for a courtesan, Kitty Fleet, living on the edges of fashionable society. She lives vicariously through the excitement of her mistress s affairs, never dreaming that a very different sort of excitement is about to land on her doorstep -- literally. It s Christmas morning, chill and bright, and Bess Rowland steps out to sweep the front steps of snow only to find a dead lordling sprawled across her mistress s stoop, beaten bloody and holding what appears to be a dead wren. It isn t long before she has even more company: Besides a mysterious body, a Bow Street Runner by the name of Jim Watt appears, this address in hand, wondering if he s too late -- but for what? An unexpected suitor for Kitty s favours comes knocking -- but Kitty s career will...
