Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Raw and untamed, River of Dreams depicts the greed and lust of American miners, as they fight each other and treacherous Indian savages, in a deadly quest to extract rare emeralds from croc-infested jungle rivers in Guyana. Three executives from Equatorial Mining leave Miami and fly to Guyana, hoping they can recover the rare and very valuable emeralds, so they can rescue their faltering mining operation from bankruptcy. When they enter the tangled web of jungle green in search of a fortune, each is eliminate, one-by-one, without warning and without mercy by a silent unknown jungle killer. The characters in this exciting mystery are unforgettable. K.C., a rough-talking, cigar-chewing, helicopter pilot, who happens to be a gorgeous female, can handle herself in the jungle with the best of them. But even she doesn't understand what can happen to all her plans, when evil lurks behind every tree. Mike and Joe, the two educated mining executives, who run Equatorial Mining, have a plan to extract emeralds and save their company. But when everything's on the line, they don't have a plan to save their own skins. And then there's Dirk and Snake, two vicious jungle psychos, who love the death they know exists just beyond the veil of green, until they come face-to-face with their own horrifying demise and can't do anything about it! Horsey, the huge pock-faced South American pimp vows to kill Dirk for causing two of his most desirable girls, Banji and Rabbit, to run off and take up with the American miners. But when Horsey chases Dirk into the jungle to seek his revenge, he becomes just another victim...
